The Black Tie Bicyclist Presents: League of American Bicyclists Road One Bicycle Safety Class

- Want to be confident pedaling to work?
- Want to feel safe on the street on a bicycle?
- Want to know how to fix a flat tire?

This 9 hour personal multi-media classroom and on the bike instruction will educate you on becoming a safe confident cyclist. Upon passing the final exam you'll receive a certificate worthy of framing.

Instructor has thousands of miles of pedalling safely, many in congested downtown traffic in Manhattan NYC, Beijing China, Washington D.C., & Albuquerque New Mexico.

Fee is based on your ability to pay and value you receive, the value is worth hundreds of dollars. The instructor's time is as valuable as yours so if you make $12 an hour, $6 an hour or $50 an hour, the cost is what you earn. It definitely will be less than an Emergency Room visit.

For a Personal Semi Private way to be safe, confident, knowledgeable cyclist contact BlackTieBicyclist@yahoo.com in Albuquerque at dan@dtbakerprojects.com to help identify substandard bike racks and push the City to force code compliance, or cajole retailers into installing bicycle racks, even if they were grandfathered in before the current bicycle parking requirements were passed.

Santa Fe's Metropolitan Planning Organization has reinstated its Bicyclist and Pedestrian

Task Force. To stay informed of meetings, contact Lucas Cruse, lacruise@ci.santa-fe.nm.us

On March 4th the City of Santa Fe overwhelmingly passed a bond issues for parks and trails that will provide 9 million dollars for the trails network, including the Rail Trail, Arroyo Chamiso Trail and River Trail.

SANTA FE NEWS

In November 2007, Don Gaspar Ave finally got long-awaited bicycle lanes along the right side, and parking was reduced to accommodate the bicycles.

Currently, BCNM's Santa Fe-based valiant webmaster is redoubling efforts to ensure that good-quality bicycle racks are installed at all retail stores in town. Contact Dan
